

Oriel Hotel

POOCH POLICY

Pack up your pup and enjoy a relaxing break at Oriel Hotel. Take a stroll on the many beaches along the coast or explore the many nature walks in North Wales.

HERE'S THE RULES:

A small charge of £15 per night per dog will be added to your booking
We only have limited pet friendly rooms available so if you are bringing your pooch, please inform reception

WE PROVIDE:

- *A dog blanket, this can be placed on the floor or bed
- *Dog bowls for your treats and dog mats for those unfortunate spillages
- *Complimentary poop bags if you happen to have a little mishap
- *A bag of treats.....well, you are on holiday too!

DINING

If you would like to join your family for breakfast and evening meals, we can serve you in our conservatory. Fresh water and doggie mats are available to help you relax. This will need to be arranged with reception.

HOUSE RULES

You must be kept on a lead in all public areas including the gardens and car park.
You are welcome to relax indoors in the Conservatory and Lounge area and outside on the terrace patio and garden. Unfortunately, you are not permitted in our restaurant or breakfast room. Guide dogs and assistance dogs are permitted in all areas.

Any damage caused by you will need to be paid for by your family.

We kindly ask you to keep chat to a discretionary level during your stay, so as not to disturb other guests.

FEEDBACK

We welcome any feedback to help us improve our service, please leave your comments in our Doggie Guest Book at reception.

XEN

Oriel Hotel have their own friendly dog, he is a German Shepherd and goes by the name of Xen.

Say hello if you see him around.

